"The strongest features of this seminar were sharing the example handouts and experiences to explain the internal affairs process. Gave good things to think about and bring back to my department."

"Excellent personal experiences/examples to the instruction. Very experienced instructor. Gained a great understanding of the material presented."

"I found the seminar very informative. You are an engaging presenter/instructor, and gave the material life. It was also nice to see the ways in which our process/procedures are similar to the best practices you discussed."
